

Dear Applicant,

I would like to thank you for your interest in IRSAM's new International Relations academic journal. Criteria for selection include editing experience (encouraged, but not required), a familiarity with International Relations and social sciences, commitment to the job, enthusiasm, professionalism, and previous experience with the club. However, if you are new to IRSAM, please do not hesitate to apply, as all of your qualifications will be taken into consideration.

Below are short descriptions of each of these new positions. You may apply for more than one position, but do keep in mind that you must be able to elaborate in your interest and qualifications for each position. Application must be submitted by November 10 at 6:00pm to Ilana Rothkopf at irsam.internal@gmail.com

If you have any questions or concerns about these positions or the application process, please do not hesitate to contact me.

Sincerely,

Ilana Rothkopf
Vice-President, Internal Affairs
International Relations Students' Association of McGill, Inc.
P (office): (514) 398-6816,

IRSAM's International Organizations Journal – Editor-in-Chief - IRSAM's International Relations Journal (name to be determined by the IRSAM Board and the Journal Editor-in-Chief) will be an undergraduate academic journal that focuses on International Relations with an emphasis on the United Nations and other relevant International Organizations. Undergraduate students may submit academic paper for publication. Selections will be determined by the Editor-in-Chief and editorial staff.

The Editor-in Chief will be responsible for the successful organization and presentation of IRSAM's new International Organizations Journal. The Editor-in-Chief will hire a small editorial staff to aide him/her with this process. The Editor-in-Chief will act under the management of the IRSAM VP-Internal.

Editor-in-Chief Application

Personal Information:

Name:	Year:
Email Address(es):	Faculty/Program:
Phone Number(s):	Date of Birth (optional):

Please answer the following questions:

1. Please outline any specific experience you have with editing, writing, or related experience with International Relations.
2. As Editor-in-Chief, you will have to work alone as well as part of a group. What do you consider your strength and weakness in each area?
3. Briefly outline any previous involvement with IRSAM. What do you like or dislike most about the organization? How do you envision the Journal bettering the club?
4. What one achievement are you most proud of in you life and why does it have this significance for you?
5. What other activities are you involved in, outside or inside of the McGill community?
6. Please attach your C.V. (required) and a short (3-5 page) writing sample (optional).

This application can be submitted by e-mail to irsam.internal@gmail.com

I certify that the information on this form is accurate to the best of my knowledge and ability.

Name:

Date: